

3

Planning at the Area Level

This following section provides a framework for strategic and action planning in your region. It addresses thinking globally while planning regionally, creating boundary-crossing networks, and creating area work plans.